HEATHERINGTON'S RESUMES.

Four of the Coal Mines Over the River are at Work Again.

Another Belmont county coal mine resumed operations yesterday notwithstanding the fact that the Ohio coal miners' strike has not yet been declared off. This time it was the big Heatherington mine below Bellaire. This makes four banks being operated by the old men, and the strike will on. It is understood that unless the strike is declared off officially before Monday, most of the miners around Bellaire will return to work on agreements made with the operators.

Says He Will Marry Her.

George Mason was yesterday fined twenty-five and costs for his honeymoon with the Findlay girl. He was discharged and says he will marry Miss Croegen, the girl who had him arrested and who was formerly known as "Mrs.
Mason." He has procured a marriage license from Probate Judge Tallman at St. Clairsville, and says that he will be married to Miss Croegen, not later than Sunday. Mason denies that he was married to the Findlay girl as stated by the latter through a Pittsburgh newspaper, and says they were never at St.

Clairsville. "We simply married ourselves at the Sherman house in Martin's Ferry" said Mason.

MISS FLEMING'S WILL.

Made in West Virginia and Probated in Ohio—Which Law Shall Govern the Executor?

The Columbus, Ohio, Dispatch has the following of interest in this vicinity:

Ripley C. Hoffman, executor of the last will of Margaret H. Fleming, this morning filed a suit asking for instructions as to the will of the testatrix. It appears that Mr. Hoffman is in doubt as to how to proceed under the will in regard to certain public bequests. Miss Fleming gave away by her will about $100,000. The bequests in question are those giving $5,000 to the New York Tribune fresh air fund; $500 to the A.
M. E. church, of Wellsburg, W. Va.; $5,000 to the county commissioners of Jefferson county, Ohio, to erect a children's orphan home, and $500 to the trustees of the A. M. E. church of Smithfield, Jefferson county, Ohio. The woman lived in Brooke county, W. Va.
Mr. Hoffman is in doubt as to his authority to pay the public bequests, and also to pay the clerk of the courts of Brooke county, W. Va., a collateral inheritance tax, which, it seems, is collected in that state. He does not know whether the public bequests are valid.
He says the estate is large enough to pay all the bequests, and the collateral tax also. The debts have all been paid, and all the property, except the household goods, is in Ohio.
Mr. F. F. Hoffman filed the suit. It seems that the testatrix, who was a maiden lady, hated the state of West Virginia, and before she died gave away the only piece of real estate her will did not dispose of. She made her will at Wellsburg, but it was probated in this city. The question now arises, what laws, the Ohio or the West Virginia, shall prevail in executing the will. If the West Virginia laws prevail, the public bequests are invalid, because that state does not allow them to be made, but the inheritance collateral tax will have to be paid. If the Ohio laws prevail this tax will not be paid, but the public bequests will stand.
The will was admitted to probate here in 1891. Mr. R. C. Hoffman, the executor, is a well known citizen of Columbus. The will provides for the woman's relatives, who want to have the public legacies knocked out.

Following is the programme to be rendered at the Opera House orchestra's concert at the Opera house next

MARTIN'S FERRY.

News Notes and Personals from Our Near Neighbor.

The present force of local mail service will not last long. A change will be made as soon as possible. Instead of transferring the mail at Martin's Ferry between the Cleveland & Pittsburgh and Terminal railroads, the mail will be transferred at Bridgeport and a wagon will haul it between that place and Wheeling. Under the present arrangement mail arriving on the Cleveland & Pittsburgh from the east at night is not sent to Wheeling until 7:29 the next morning, a delay of ten hours.
The Terminal service is fairly satisfactory if the mail is promptly carried from the depots to the offices and vice versa.

Lost—A square flat gold watch chain, with a heart on one side and emerald on the other, between Hanover and Monroe streets. The finder will be rewarded on returning the same to the Terminal ticket office.

John H. Currie, colored, of Martin's Ferry, wants a divorce from his wife on the ground of adultery. Papers have been served on Mrs. Currie who is at Lanesville. Will T. Dixon is the plaintiff's attorney.

Despite the weather last night the Y's entertainment at the opera house was very largely attended and a good round sum was realized for the public drinking fountain.

Marquis Davis, a popular young man in the employ of the Cleveland & Pittsburgh railroad at Martin's Ferry, has been promoted to check clerk in the freight office.

Rev. A. B. Riker, of Wheeling, will give his second talk in the Opera house, to-morrow afternoon, to men only, on
"Sins Peculiar to Men."

BELLAIRE.

All sorts of Local News and Gossip from the Glass City.

Mr. Charles M. Hogg, of Cadiz, one of the largest wool buyers in eastern Ohio, is a candidate for the Republican nomination to succeed Senator J. W. Nichol, who has served two terms, and has been in this county feeling the pulse of the people for several days. There is no opposition to him in this county, so far as known, and if Harrison presents him he will not doubt be the nominee, as Belmont county has had the senator for eight of the past ten years.

The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company has filled the Belmont street crossing over their yard tracks so that teams can now travel from one end of the city to the other on that street for the first time in the history of the city.
The crossing is one of the best ever made in the city, and furnishes an example that could be used with profit on other street crossings over railroad tracks.

The Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling railway company will not put in any more tracks on the west side of Noble street, where they purchased most of the property, since they have arranged with the Baltimore & Ohio for the use of their yards here. They have all the room they want now.

It is understood that Louis F. La-Roche, the hold-over councilman from the Fourth ward, will not submit to the decision by lot in favor of W. D.
Jones, but will carry the matter into court. That body is judge of its own members.

Hon. C. L. Weems has officially announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for prosecuting attorney. Mr. Weems is a bright lawyer and a credit to the bar of this county.
